A University of Oregon student has reported that he was assaulted in a stairwell at the Living Learning Center South residence hall on the UO campus between 1:00-2:00 a.m. Sunday.

The student reports that as he was descending the east stairwell, he was struck in the back of the head, and then held down by a white, college-aged male as another white, college-aged male hit and kicked the student. The suspects did not attempt to take anything from the student, but left him on the ground and continued down the stairs. No further suspect description was made.

This incident is unresolved and an investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information about this or similar incidents should call UOPD at 541-346-2919. Updates regarding this incident, when and if available, will be posted on the UOPD website at police.uoregon.edu.

CAMPUS SAFETY TIPS FROM UOPD

- No action or inaction by a crime survivor makes that person responsible for his or her victimization. Perpetrators are responsible for crimes and their effects. The following suggestions may help reduce the possibility of experiencing a crime, or may improve opportunities to receive prompt assistance.
- It is a crime to intentionally touch someone against his or her will, regardless of the situation.
- Communities are safest when members look out for each other: report any suspicious activity or unauthorized strangers immediately.
- In residence halls or secured apartment complexes, do not let in strangers, do not allow strangers to enter behind you as a courtesy, and do not lend out keys.
- Encourage friends to travel in pairs or with trusted companions, especially at night or in remote areas. Be aware of surroundings, and attempt to keep a safe distance from strangers.

- Whenever possible, keep valuables secured and out of sight.
- Use UO Safe Ride (541-346-RIDE ext. 2), call a taxicab, or contact UOPD for an on-campus escort (541-346-2919).
