What can I say or do?

“Do you need help?”

“Can I walk you home?”

“Are you alright?”

“Do you want me to call someone for you?”

“Should I call the police?”

“Do you want me to talk to so-and-so for you?”

“What can I do to help you?”

“Is everything OK?”

What can I say or do?

“What you said earlier really bothered me...”

“I don’t like what you just did.”

“I know you well enough to know that you would not want to hurt someone...”

“I wonder if you realize how that feels/comes across.”

“How would you feel if someone did that to your sister?”

“I am saying something because I care about you...”

On Your Campus

- What is my school's sexual misconduct policy? How can it be improved?
- How can I work with my campus newspaper to make sure they talk about this crime appropriately?
- What services are available to victims of sexual violence on my campus?

Let's Practice

Imagine...

- As you enter a residence hall at your college, you see a couple stumbling down the hallway. Their hands are all over each other in a clearly sexual way. A few minutes later, you hear a struggle, then loud voices and yelling coming from the room they entered.

(Adapted from Banyard, Plante, and Moynihan, 2005)

Discussion Questions

- What did you see or hear that concerns you?
- How does the situation affect you?
- Someone else?
- What are the risks if you act? Is it dangerous?

Discussion Questions

- What are my options?
- Can I talk with someone else in a more appropriate position to do something?
- Are there any other resources I need?

Take-Home Points

- You have a role to play in preventing sexual violence.
- There are many opportunities all day long to make a difference in small ways.
- There are many ways to speak up or take action, not just one “right” way.
- Always consider the consequences; if there is immediate danger, call 911.
